

JOB POSTING

Date of Posting: August 25, 2008
Posting Number: CA82508A
Position: Apprentice
Status: Non-exempt
Location: San Leandro, CA
Position Reports To: Project Superintendent

Essential Duties and Functions:

- Individual will install and repair basic components of Access Control Systems, CCTV, Intrusion Alarm and Security systems.
- Prior experience in this field or in an electrical or networking background is desirable but not required.
- Individual will be required to pull cable/wires, mount devices on interior/exterior walls and ceilings. Individual must be able to visually distinguish colors.

Qualifications:

- Individual must demonstrate manual dexterity, ability to climb ladders/scaffolding, operate power hand tools and work in both an office and a construction environment. Individual must be capable of lifting and carrying equipment, ladders and tools.
- Individual must possess a valid drivers license, current vehicle insurance and have reliable transportation. Use of personal vehicle will be required for business travel but mileage will be reimbursed in accordance with the Union Contract Agreement.
- Travel within the state and some out of state may be required based upon work requirements.
- Individual will have to pass a Bureau of Security and Investigative Services (BSIS) background check and be licensed by the State of California Better Business Bureau.
- This position requires the individual to join the Communication Workers of America (CWA) union and pay monthly union dues at a rate of 2.25 times their hourly rate.