

JOB POSTING

Date of Posting: December 7, 2007
Posting Number: CA120707F
Position: Foreman
Status: Non-exempt
Location: San Leandro, CA
Position Reports To: Project Superintendent

Essential Duties and Functions:

- Install, trouble-shoot, program, service and repair Access Control Systems, CCTV/Video, Intrusion Alarm and other integrated security systems.
- Interface with customers to assess, identify, correct, repair and test components and systems.
- Program systems, verify system performance and conduct customer training.
- Review installation work orders, design and components.
- Supervise and direct crews made up of Apprentices, Technicians and Journeymen on job sites.

Qualifications:

Prior experience of 5-10 years in this field is required.

Individual will be required to pull cable/wires, mount devices on interior/exterior walls and ceilings. Individual must be able to visually distinguish colors.

Individual must demonstrate manual dexterity, ability to climb ladders/scaffolding, operate power hand tools and work in both an office and a construction environment. Individual must be capable of lifting and carrying equipment, ladders and tools.

Individual must possess a valid drivers license, current vehicle insurance and have reliable transportation. Use of personal vehicle will be required for business travel but mileage will be reimbursed in accordance with the Union Contract Agreement.

Travel within the state and some out of state may be required based upon work requirements.

Individual will have to pass a Bureau of Security and Investigative Services (BSIS) background check and be licensed by the State of California Better Business Bureau.

This position requires the individual to join the Communication Workers of America (CWA) union and pay monthly union dues.