

JOB POSTING

Date of Posting: February 13, 2008
Posting Number: DC2808WTT
Position: Wireless Tower Technician (4 positions available)
Status: Non-exempt
Location: Washington D.C. area (Adesta Broadband Networks)
Position Reports To: Project Superintendent

Working under the direction of the Crew Foreman, assist in the installation of customer owned antenna systems on existing towers, water tanks and roof tops. Erection of monopole, sst and guyed towers. Installation of tower modifications as well as antenna modifications to include 4G, EVDO and UMTS applications. supporting QA/QC of all work efforts, and maintaining a high safety awareness.

Essential Duties and Functions:

- Understands the policies, procedures, standards, and goals of the Adesta organization and directs the execution of all aspects of project start-up, project implementation, progress reporting, and project completion and closeout.
- Fully understands all obligations under the terms of the Prime Contract.
- Proficient in all trades working within the assigned project. Can recognize and correct inefficient or unsafe practices as they occur.
- Versed and experienced in techniques for effective for proper installation or performance of assigned tasks.
- Other duties as assigned by supervision.

Qualifications:

Requires High School diploma or equivalent employment history. Must be able to provide prior tower climb certification. Must be proficient in antenna systems for various Wireless carriers. Erection of SST, monopole and guyed towers. Position is directly responsible for quality of installations assigned